CLASS NEWS

Homework:

Your child will receive a book or reading activity tonight. Please complete and bring back on WEDNESDAY, so we can prepare new activities to be sent home every Friday. Please also record in their white book to let us know how they get on!

Infant Nativity:

Thank you for coming to see your child at the Nativity this week. The children enjoyed singing, dancing and dressing up! We still have a few tea towels in school, which have not been collected.

Please also label every piece of clothing with your child's name, it is so much easier to return to the right owner! We have two jumpers which have children's names in, which may have got mixed up during the changing for the nativity- please could you check you have the right jumper at home.

Christmas Lunch:

We enjoyed our Christmas lunch on Thursday!

Christmas party:

Children may wear their own 'party' clothes, but please ensure suitable shoes as we will go outside to play. Reception will have their party in the morning, with the Year 1 in the afternoon.

Shared learning (Reception children):

You are invited to celebrate your child's learning in Autumn term. There will be time to look through the Learning Journeys with your child. We will start at 2.30pm- it will be great to see you there!
