

Game Cards

Your task is to cut the following cards out and then stick them on the Game Board, where you and your group decide they belong. Discuss each card before you glue it down.

A child hits another child because they hit them first.	A child is late to school because they overslept.	A child has good manners.
A lady drives into a pedestrian who steps out from in-between two parked cars.	A child tells lies.	A lady sneezes when she is driving a car in a traffic jam. Her car bumps into the car in front.
A child draws on another child's work.	A child feels angry.	A child trips over someone's foot and hurts themselves.
A lady tries to stop smoking, but she doesn't manage to.

Game Cards

Your task is to cut the following cards out and then stick them on the Game Board, where you and your group decide they belong. Discuss each card before you glue it down.

A child hits another child because they hit them first.	A child is late to school because they overslept.	A child has good manners.
A lady drives into a pedestrian who steps out from in-between two parked cars.	A child tells lies.	A lady sneezes when she is driving a car in a traffic jam. Her car bumps into the car in front.
A child draws on another child's work.	A child feels angry.	A child trips over someone's foot and hurts themselves.
A lady tries to stop smoking, but she doesn't manage to.

Game Cards

Your task is to cut the following cards out and then stick them on the Game Board, where you and your group decide they belong. Discuss each card before you glue it down.

A child hits another child because they hit them first.	A child is late to school because they overslept.	A child has good manners.
A lady drives into a pedestrian who steps out from in-between two parked cars.	A child tells lies.	A lady sneezes when she is driving a car in a traffic jam. Her car bumps into the car in front.
A child draws on another child's work.	A child feels angry.	A cat kills a mouse.
A lady tries to stop smoking, but she doesn't manage to.

Game Cards

Your task is to cut the following cards out and then stick them on the Game Board, where you and your group decide they belong. Discuss each card before you glue it down.

A child hits another child because they hit them first.	A child is late to school because they overslept.	A child has good manners.
A lady drives into a pedestrian who steps out from in-between two parked cars.	A child tells lies.	A lady sneezes when she is driving a car in a traffic jam. Her car bumps into the car in front.
A child draws on another child's work.	A child feels angry.	A cat kills a mouse.
A lady tries to stop smoking, but she doesn't manage to.

Game Cards

Your task is to cut the following cards out and then stick them on the Game Board, where you and your group decide they belong. Discuss each card before you glue it down.

There are some blank cards for you to create your own cards to stick on the Game Board.

A child hits another child because they hit them first.	A child is late to school because they overslept.	A child has good manners.
A lady drives into a pedestrian who steps out from in-between two parked cars.	A child tells lies.	A lady sneezes when she is driving a car in a traffic jam. Her car bumps into the car in front.
A child draws on another child's work.	A child feels angry.	A cat kills a mouse.
A lady tries to stop smoking, but she doesn't manage to.		