

Dog's Spellings

Magpie's wing was damaged by the forest fire. She hid in a cave and was very sad. When she was better she sat on Dog's back and the animals raced along together as if they were flying. Fox came to join the animals in the springtime as he was lonely. But Dog did not trust him because he was sly. When Magpie went off with Fox, Dog was terribly upset. It looked as if Magpie was not coming back at all! However, Fox left Magpie in the desert and she began the long journey back to Dog, her friend.
