

British Values

5th-11th October

Individual Liberty

Lots of people enjoy running races. Some people try hard to win and some people just enjoy taking part and having fun.

5th October 2020

UN Rights of a Child

We will take part in many different kinds of races and competitions during our lives. Some we may win, others we may lose but the most important part is that we try our best and support and show respect to those around us.
