

EY Resource

Listen to the girl, who is having fun in the school playhouse. What do you think about her rules? Is she being fair? How do you think other children will feel? What do you think she should do? What would you say to her? If you thought someone in your class was being unfair, what could you do? Who could you tell?

