

Mighty Oaks - Creative Curriculum homework Autumn 1

World War Two

Who was Anne Frank? Use sources of information such as the internet and your local library to find out information about Anne Frank Write a biography about this significant person who was alive during World War Two.	These optional activities link to the class learning for Autumn 1. Choose one of the following activities to complete at home or think of your own project related to our class topic. Please bring into school before the end of the half term. Dojos will be awarded for submission of homework	Research Morse Code and how it was used during World War Two. Create your own code for a friend to crack.
Design and test out a parachute (using a toy or a weight) that would allow a member of the RAF to land safely. 	Create a piece of art which shows a World War Two scene. This could be a drawing, painting or collage of a World War Two. Visit the Tate or the National Portrait Gallery website for inspiration of WW2 artists and their work.	Choose a famous pop artist from 1930s onwards. Use the internet to research their life and present your facts in an interesting way.
Recreate a model of something that is significant to World War Two. For example: a tank, a spitfire plane, a gas mask. This can be made from a media of your own choosing. 	Write a story that is set during World War Two. Use your knowledge of evacuation or the events of the war to help with the detail in your writing. 	Bake or cook a wartime recipe. Remember to be careful when weighing and measuring ingredients. Take photos and bring in the recipe you used.