

Resource 1

Look at the resource below, which shares examples of ways people might fundraise.

Some people fundraise for their cause by asking people to sponsor them for completing a challenge like a sponsored bounce!

A quiz can be a fun way to fundraise. Teams pay to enter, and the winners receive a prize.

Can you think of any other examples?
Have you ever fundraised?

This craft fair helped raise funds. The stall holders paid so they could sell their crafts.

Businesses are often happy to sponsor events or people. In return, they can display their business name and logo, so people know who they are.

Collecting items that can be recycled, like aluminium cans, and receiving money for them.