

Correctly punctuate these direct speech sentences

Remember to check for careful use of inverted commas, commas, question marks, exclamation marks, full stops and capital letters.

1. Who discovered the body of the King? Asked a young porter in the employ of Macbeth.
2. It was Lord Macduff, Thane of Fife explained his friend Hamish
3. And who do they think began the young porter was the culprit?
4. Our great Thane of Cawdor discovered the two grooms appointed to protect the king smeared in Duncan's blood with daggers lying beside him explained the young porter.
5. And where are these two murdering traitors now asked Hamish have they been imprisoned.
6. The young porter's voice lowered to a hush the thane of Cawdor flew into a great rage. he looked around before continuing, he executed them on the spot!

Once you have correctly punctuated these direct speech sentences, try turning each one into reported speech.

Remember: the verb tense will change to past tense.

