

Thursday 4th March

Micro Art Can you create a miniature version of your favourite book front cover? Please see the Micro Art document with step by step instructions. Do not forget to take pictures and keep hold of your creations. We want to display these when you return to school.	Egg Box Art Can you create a character/scene from your favourite story using egg boxes? Please see the Egg Box Art document for further details. Do not forget to take pictures and keep hold of your creations. We want to display these when you return to school.	Dressing Up You are invited to dress up as your favourite book character. If you are at home, don't forget to log onto your daily zoom session to share your costumes. Please send a photo of your costumes to your class email. We are looking forward to seeing these! Remember, you do not need to go and buy an outfit. Homemade outfits are just as good.
Perform-a-Poem Ask an adult to record you reciting your favourite poem or nursery rhyme. Send your recordings to your class teacher's email.	Extreme Reading Ask an adult to take a picture of you reading in an unusual place. This could be in your home or outside. Remember to keep safe!	World Book Day Bake Off Can you bake your favourite cake/buns? You could even use your favourite book or author as inspiration. Once your creations are ready, grab a slice and cosy up with a good book. Don't forget to take a picture!
