On week 5 there is a walk around Marl Pits which is good but muddy.  https://stpaulsrawtenstall.co.uk/keeping-active-and-21-minute-challenge/
Tuesday	Forest School – due to the weather last term the last Forest school session did not go ahead so have a go at this task – Build a tipi – inside or outside Stone age habitats used wood or bone for the structure and animal material for warmth.  Construct a shelter out of tall, straight sticks to mimic the bones, and cover it with blankets in place of animal hides. Make it more inviting inside with comfortable soft cushions, creating a multifunctional learning space.	Break

Look for the errors in Jacob's homework below, can you rewrite the paragraph correctly?

There are 8 mistakes.

Yesterday I had what was, possibly, the best day of my life! I was incredibly excited because we were going to the theme park. The first ride started very gently but then it went so fast that I became terribly scared and screamed all the way round!

For lunch we all sat comfortably on a big bench, the food was very tasty. Afterwards I asked if it we could go on more rides. We went on a water ride and got so wet our fingers became wrinkly.

After 3 hours mum said we simply had to go home as we were going to be late. I was happy to leave as I was feeling incredibly tired after my amazing day, I fell asleep in the car straight away!
